1. With regard to the persons mentioned in 74-57, 87, our files hold traces of MACCHI, DORI, BEAUVEDE, ETI. On Arturo Macchi BOCCINI and Gian Battista BERTOLINI we have no traces other than reports received from your station. We have no identifiable information on the remaining individuals.
2. Jean Maurice BEAUVEDE was reported in December of 1952 as a neo-fascist who had received $1000 in travel funds from one R. Wolfgang WALKER. The background of Fernando GJAI has been covered rather thoroughly in last reference cited above, in connection with the Gruppo Annunziati.
3. Professor Leo MAGNINO was reported in May of 1952 as a leader of the newly formed International Institute for the Study of Ethnic and Minority Problems, Via Po 33, Rome - a group characterized by this report as sharply anti-communist. In October of 1952, he was again reported as the temporarily named liaison official of the Internazional della Libertà (International of Liberty) when it transferred its presidency office from Western Germany to Rome. This organization was also reported as distinctly anti-communist and anti-Marxist.
4. Lt. Paolo DEU was reported in February 1944 as a pro-German Fascist officer in Spain, member of Italian Naval Intelligence. In January of 1945 he was reported assisting in the direction of naval intelligence in Madrid. Adhering to Fascism after the Armistice, he was nevertheless reported a member of the Republican Embassy in Madrid according to a report of March 1945. DEU previously travelled between Madrid and Barcelona, where he was reported head of the information office; it was also said of him that in addition to working for F.I. (Italian Naval Intelligence) he was in the pay of the German Abwehr.
